

EUROPEAN VALUES

Protecting Freedom

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY AT THE EUROPEAN VALUES THINK-TANK

INTERN OF THE KREMLIN WATCH PROGRAM

SPECIFICATION:

- Team work and independent activities in the Kremlin Watch team, which include:
- Monitoring and cooperation on weekly Kremlin Watch Briefing in the English language;
- Involvement in the preparation of expert documentation within the area of disinformation campaigns;
- Possible participation in the preparation and realization of both public and non-public events of the Program, for example, the Kremlin Watch Academy in the fall of 2019.

CONTACT:

Klára Veverka

Deputy Director for Operations
veverka@evropskehodnoty.cz
+420 773 099 220

Deadline for applications: May 26th, 2019

WHAT WE OFFER:

- Basic four-month unpaid internship with the prospects of long-term cooperation and financially remunerated position;
- Recognition of the internship as a required practise;
- The possibility to meet and cooperate with international and Czech expert communities;
- Space for personal development under professional supervision aimed at the analysis of public policies and political processes;
- Work in a young motivated team of graduates and students from universities such as Sciences Po, University of Oxford, Georgetown University or University of Toronto;
- Flexible cooperation exclusively on an online basis.

Kremlin Watch is a strategic program of the European Values Think-Tank, which aims to expose and confront instruments of Russian influence and disinformation operations focused against Western democracies.

MORE INFO AT WWW.EUROPEANVALUES.NET/KW-INTERNSHIP/